

Now is the time to start a career with PCC's Registered Apprenticeship programs

- IT Helpdesk
- Cybersecurity
- Software Development
- Medical Coding

Apprenticeship = Workforce Solution

Pueblo Community College is the sponsor of Registered Apprenticeship Programs through the U.S. Department of Labor in the information technology sector. A variety of industry-approved occupations are available.

Fast-track Your Career

Gain industry knowledge and career preparedness in less time than degree programs.

Program Flexibility

Classes are offered in a variety of formats, rolling enrollment, and full- and part-time options.

Professional Development

Get 2,000 hours of paid on-the-job training. Wages increase as you develop job-related skills.

Earn a Nationally-Recognized Credential

Issued by the U.S. Department of Labor upon completion of the apprenticeship program.

Above National Average Growth

Talent need in tech industries are projected to continue to grow.

Get Started with Your Career Today!

Visit our website for more information.
pueblocc.edu/programs/apprenticeship

It's a Win-Win!

Develop the necessary knowledge and skills for in-demand industries, leading to higher retention with employer partners.

Contact us for more information

- pueblocc.edu/programs/apprenticeship
- Email apprenticeship@pueblocc.edu

